REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

7. The following is an examiner's statement of reason for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fail to teach in combination with the other claimed limitations, a method for managing an instance of a model, wherein the instance includes a set of nodes with associated node variables and a set of connection constraints, the method comprising the computer-implemented steps of: loading into volatile memory information associated with the first node; determining, based at least on said information associated with said first node, a first subset of said set of connection constraints, wherein said first subset of connection constraints includes all connection constraints that restrict the intent to modify, and wherein said first subset of connection constraints includes fewer constraints than said set of connection constraints; as recited in the independent claims.

Art Unit: 2192

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

8. The prior art made or record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
